Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant

Tamara Rose and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count(s) of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Counts One and Five of the Indictment, which charges her with conspiracy, distribution and possession with intent to distribute controlled substances, and use of a telecommunication device in connection with a controlled substance offence in violation of 21 U. S. C. § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(C) and 843(b).

B. Elements of Offense(s)

The elements of Count One are as follows:

1. The defendant knowingly and intentionally entered into an agreement with others; and
2. The purpose of the agreement was to distribute one or more controlled substances, specifically 40 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing fentanyl.

The elements of Count Five are as follows:

1. That Defendant Rose knowingly participated in an offense involving the distribution of a controlled substance, specifically fentanyl and,
2. Defendant Rose, used a telecommunication device, a cellular telephone, in the commission of the offense.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for defendant's guilty plea(s): During the summer of 2018, DEA identified Jermaine Matthews as a distributor of counterfeit oxycodone pills. Matthews was selling pills that appeared to be oxycodone 30mg at $12.00 per pill. DEA submitted the pills for analysis and they were later determined to contain fentanyl.

On August 14, 2018, Matthews and made arrangements to sell 200 fentanyl pills to a DEA CS for $3,600. The sale was completed on August 17, 2019 in the Royal Oak area.

On September 28, 2018, arrangements were made with Matthews to purchase an additional 200 pills. Matthews agreed to the sale but advised that the cost of the pills would be $15.00 each. DEA, through their investigation learned that the pills in August and September were being sent to Detroit by co-defendant Tamara Rose from Arizona. The CS was contacted by Matthews and was advised that he could pick up the package in Royal Oak. The package was recovered from the CS by DEA and later found to contain 200 pills containing fentanyl.

On January 15, 2019 DEA ordered an additional 200 pills from Matthews. Tamara Rose packaged 200 pills and mailed them to an address in Royal Oak. DEA intercepted the pills that also tested positive for the controlled substance fentanyl. Later cellular telephone conversations involving Matthews and Rose confirmed that Matthews and Rose were complicit in sending the pills that had been seized by DEA.

The defendant stipulates that the controlled substance in this case was in fact fentanyl, and that the amount involved totaled over 40 grams.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, the defendant's guideline range is 60 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. If the Court finds:

1. That defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or
2. that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 60 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. The parties understand and agree that the counts of conviction require the Court to sentence the defendant to a mandatory minimum sentence of 60 months.

However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C) the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the top of the sentencing guideline range as determined by Paragraph 2B.

B. Supervised Release

The Court must impose a term of supervised release of at least 4 years on Count 1.

The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that result from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $200.00 at the time of sentencing.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

Restitution is not applicable to this case.

4. Each Party's Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw her guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if she does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3.

5. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right she may have to appeal her conviction on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment does not exceed 60 months, the defendant also waives any right she may have to appeal her sentence on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment is at least 60 months, the government waives any right it may have to appeal the defendant's sentence.

However, this waiver does not bar filing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, provided such a claim is properly brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2255.

6. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea(s) or Vacation of Conviction(s)

If defendant is allowed to withdraw her guilty plea(s) or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea(s) becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea(s) or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives her right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

7. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

8. Outstanding Charges

There are no other charges against the defendant in this case.

9. Collateral Consequences of Conviction

Defendant understands that his conviction(s) here may carry additional consequences under federal and state law, including the potential loss of the right to vote, right to carry a firearm, right to serve on a jury, and ability to hold certain licenses or to be employed in certain fields. Defendant further understands that, if she is not a native-born citizen of the United States, there may be adverse immigration consequences resulting from conviction. These include possible removal from the United States, denial of citizenship, denaturalization, denied admission to the United States in the future and other possible consequences.

Defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the Court, can predict to a certainty the effect of defendant's conviction on any of these matters. Defendant nevertheless affirms that she chooses to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences or other collateral consequences of her conviction.

10. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

11. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 5:00 P.M. on 07/19/2019. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
